WEDNESDAY... MAY 25

BIG PARADE CALLED OFF.

Too Many Organizations Wanted to Take Part in Roosevelt Welcome.

New York, May 20.—There was good reason for the calling off of the carefully planned land parade which was to have been a feature of the Roosevelt home-coming welcome, according to Cornelius Vanderbilt, chairman of the committee in charge.

"Applications for places in line had become so numerous that it began to appear as if the entire nation wanted to march," said Mr. Vanderbilt, "and the applications which had been given the official O. K. and tabulated—a small proportion of the whole—would have formed a line of marchers many miles in length. It would have taken such a parade at least twenty-four hours to pass a given point. If the inauguration had been left open, however, only knows how long a line we would have had."

"We were swamped with applications. They came from North and South, East and West. They came from mounted societies and unmounted societies, from Indians and cowboys, from organizations and the like. We received letters demanding a certain amount of space and certain positions in the line, until it did not take long for us to see that a parade of such proportions was an impossibility. Our desire is to have a simple and dignified reception, as would befit the coming home of an ex-President. We want the people to see Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Roosevelt to see the people, which could not be arranged if we were to have a thirty or thirty-five or forty-eight-hour parade."

Will it Come?

Will a merchant who is wise
cease to advertise?
No—when the trees grow upside down;
When the beggar wears a crown;
When ice forms on the sun;
When the sparrow weighs a ton;
When gold sovereigns get too cheap;
When women secrets keep;
When fish forget to swim;
When Satan sings a hymn;
When girls go back on gum;
When the small boy hates a drum;
When no politician schemes;
When mince pie makes pleasant
dreams;
When it's fun to break a tooth;
When all lawyers tell the truth;
When the drummer has no brass—
When these things all come to pass,
Then the man that's wise
Will neglect to advertise.

Biliousness and Constipation.

The years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have turned to-day had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach, liver and blood, and the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale at all dealers.

True as Gospel.

Have you ever think of it? Suppose every business man in the city took such interest in the upbuilding of the city as the newspaper man. He would build for railroads, manufacturing, roads, churches, good streets, and a hundred and one other good things for the general good; he would scold, badgers and cavors around generally until he gets what he sets out for. Imagine his feelings, then, when some lame, string-haired kind of a fellow reproaches him because he doesn't boom things enough and nine times out of ten that fellow has never paid one cent toward supporting the paper, and the paper he reads with marked regularity is either borrowed or picked up from the counter at the store where he trades.—(Breathitt County News.)

"Rat-Killing Day" For Kentucky.

Carlisle, Ky., May 23.—Green R. Keller, editor of the Carlisle Mercury, who for three years has annually called on the people of Nicholas county to make it their business one day each year to kill rats, has started a movement to make "rat-killing day" State-wide in its observance next year.

May 17, the day named this year, was not generally observed on account of the inclement weather, but the citizens have been getting in some work in the last day or two, and reports received here indicate that several hundred have been killed. A report is to the effect that one farmer killed about 200.

BEAVER DAM.

May 23.—Miss Sallie Mary Shultz died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Kate Davis, of this place, on the morning of May 19, of general debility and old age. Miss Shultz was a sister of Uncle Matthew Shultz, of the Prentiss neighborhood. She was about 78 years old and had long been a faithful member of the Baptist church. Her remains were interred in the Providence cemetery on the 20th in the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing friends.

Mr. J. A. King and family left one day last week to resume residence on his claim in New Mexico. Mr. King says they are building a new railroad close to his claim and that the county-seat has been established not far from his claim.

Mr. W. A. Arbuckle, formerly the head of Arbuckle & Co., of Beaver Dam, leaves to-day for Chanute, Kan., where he will engage in the butcher business and contemplates making his future home.

Misses Ruby King and Mary Coots, of the Habit neighborhood, Daviess county, have been visiting Mrs. Belle Harrison and Miss May Hazelrigg.

Miss Pearl Eblin, of Louisville, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Jno. H. Barnes, of this place, and attended the commencement exercises at school hall.

Miss Mabel Porter, of Hickory neighborhood, was in town last week, attending school commencement.

The commencement exercises of the West Kentucky Seminary beginning May 16, ended May 19. The exercises were short but spicy and were immensely enjoyed by the people who attended. Monday and Tuesday evenings the Preparatory and Intermediate departments gave "Ye Village Skewl of Long Ago," "The Golden Key" and "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." All were good, especially the first. On Wednesday evening the Primary department, with a few music students, rendered "Floral, Queen of Flowerdom" in a way that brought down the house and displayed untiring work on the part of the pupil and teacher in preparing. We want to congratulate Misses Ryan and Thompson upon their success. There being no graduates this year, the pupils of the tenth and eleventh grades gave splendid orations on Thursday evening. The exhibit which headed the commencement exercises was held at the school building Monday afternoon. It displayed the work of the pupils during the year and was very good.

Mrs. John Chapman, of Central City and her mother, Mrs. Nancy Stewart, of McHenry, attended the funeral of Miss Sallie Shultz Friday and remained visiting friends in Beaver Dam until Saturday afternoon.

Miss Thompson, our gifted and popular music teacher, who has been with us since last fall, left Saturday for the home of her father, Mr. Ed Porter, of Louisville. We regret to lose Miss Thompson and hope she will come again.

Attorneys J. M. Porter and D. B. Rhoads were in Hartford last week, attending court.

Miss Gertrude and Mr. M. C. Wallis left to-day for their respective homes in Trigg county.
